

GRAPHISOFT PARK

Dr. György MARTIN-HAJDU

Dr. György Martin-Hajdu is a specialist in finance and organisational development, with over 30 years of professional experience.

He worked in the bank sector for 12 years, first in the area of structured finance at the BNK-KH-Dresdner Bank, then as a financial consultant at MeesPierson Euramerica, later he became a leading partner at the Concorde Group. He played a leading role in several IPO, M&A and venture capital investment transactions in Hungary.

At present he is a freelancer, he mainly does coaching in organisational and leadership development. He is honorary associate professor at the Corvinus University of Budapest. He graduated from the Karl Marx University of Economic Sciences in 1987, in 1987-88 he studied finance in Oxford with the Soros scholarship, he defended his PHD in 1993. In 2007 he received a post-graduate degree in organisational development supervision.